

Psalm 144:15

A New Day!

“How blessed are the people whose God is the Lord!” -David

Today is the day to remember our first love and to do the deeds we did before! Today is a day to rise up and sing a new song unto the Lord who pardons all our iniquity, and heals all our diseases. The devil wants to side-track us with distractions, tempt us until we fall, and accuse us to death, all the while our loving Savior holds out His hand and says, “Rise up My son and leave the past with yesterday for today is a new day and the old things are gone and not even remembered.” The devil works hard to keep us confused and silent, wondering if God could love us when in fact the opposite is true. God loved us and saved us before we even had the desire to follow after Him! This is the truth - that He who began a good work in you will be faithful to complete it.

Today is a new day for victory over our flesh and for victory over our doubts and despairs. God is faithful! Just remember that. Let it be your constant encouragement no matter what your circumstances. Let us defend His honor to those who continually slander His good name. Let us make His heart glad today by standing up for Him. He takes abuse all day long and as Charles Spurgeon said, “O God, are Thy enemies awake, and only Thy friends asleep? Is there not one of the twelve awake but Judas? Are they all asleep except the traitor?”

“How blessed is the man whose God is the Lord!” “My Lord’s love is as ancient as eternity, deeper than the sea, firmer than the hills, changeless as His own Deity; how can I seek another friend in preference to Him?” - C.H. Spurgeon. It is the most wonderful thing in the world my dear brothers and sisters, to wake up and realize that the chains have fallen off and a new day has just begun and there is still time to get some work done for the Lord! Do you realize you are free? Do you realize you can let the past go and start fresh today? Give the past to God and renew your commitment to Him today. There is still time to serve Him yet. Let us not waste any more of it!

God bless you all and may He fill you with a new joy this day!
