

Psalm 81:13-16

Taking a stand for the restoration of our land

“Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways! I would quickly subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their adversaries. Those who hate the Lord would pretend obedience to Him; and their time of punishment would be forever. But I would feed you with the finest of wheat; and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.” -God

Take a few moments to meditate on these verses. Do they not cause you to ask yourself, “Why do we turn away from God when His blessings bring forth such security and abundance”? Doesn’t it just make you want to turn to our country and say, “Let us arise and serve the Lord”? I find myself asking God, “Can You reestablish righteousness in a land that is so spread out? Can You draw us together and unite us once again under Your banner?” God says that if we turn back to Him He will remove our adversaries. This includes all manner of epidemics and pest infestations and blights and cancers as well as physical attacks. God can remove it all. Doesn’t that just make you want to do something to bring this country back to holiness? I find myself saying, “Lord, why do those who hate You have all the media at their command to spread all manner of lawlessness further and faster than ever before? Please give us a voice! Please silence those whose outspoken wickedness brings calamity upon our land that much quicker.” Sin has no shame and flaunts itself openly declaring that there is no longer any reason to have self-control and holiness.

We need a new day! A day where the body of Christ wakes up and once again has a voice! Why should our land come to complete calamity while we are alive to defend it? Can’t we turn the tide? The Bible says that one can chase a thousand and two ten thousand. So are there not more with us than with them? Why should they dictate our calamity? Let us rise and preserve our land!

Lord Jesus, please lead us to victory and pour out Your Holy Spirit unto revival! We need You now! Please rescue the naive from the inevitable calamity that comes from disobeying Your laws and turning away from You. Please help us Lord Jesus. Please raise us up and cause us to be bright and bold lights so that we might be delivered by Your hand!

Thank you Jesus.

We love You and want to walk in Your footsteps.
